

Central Jersey Genealogical Club, Inc.

MONTHLY MEETING

DATE: August 12, 2014

TIME: 7:00 PM

SPEAKER: Toni McKeen

TOPIC: Tips and Tricks for using Ancestry.com for Family Research

This lecture will show how to research efficiently and successfully using this powerful site. Toni shares helpful tips in finding those elusive relatives, which parameters to use, and how to prevent looking at thousands of names in search of the one person you are trying to find. Also included are often overlooked options and the newest cool features.

Toni McKeen has been doing genealogy research for the last 27 years. For the last 10 years, Toni has been teaching several levels of genealogy in her home town of Ridgefield, CT. Toni has been a popular lecturer at various genealogy societies in New York, Connecticut, Boston and Long Island.
