

Central Jersey Genealogical Club

MONTHLY MEETING

DATE: June 14, 2016

TIME: 7:00 PM

SPEAKER: Harry and Gail Benson

TOPIC: Military Miscellany

Gail and Harry Benson are retired educators who reside in Buena Vista Township.

Gail was a business education teacher, school business administrator and retired from the New Jersey Department of Education where she worked as a County School Business Administrator. Harry was a math and computer science instructor at the middle school, high school and university levels, as well as working in corporate America in computer graphics research and development. He is past president and currently serves as a Trustee of the Buena Historical Society in Atlantic County. They have both been avid genealogists for over 30 years.

In addition to researching their own families, they do local history research, and genealogical research for others. Their speaking history includes historical and genealogical societies as well as several appearances at the Mid-Atlantic Family History Conference. Their family research involves California, Nevada, Wisconsin, Minnesota, New York, and New Jersey, Ireland, Norway, Sweden, Germany, and Italy. And that does not count all the places they have researched for others.

PLACE: Hamilton Township Library
